

REMARKS

The present amendment (E) supplements Applicant's response filed on May 20, 2003. The present amendment corrects typographical and other obvious errors. Specifically, "OCR" is the abbreviation used throughout the specification to denote "optical character recognition." Furthermore, Fig. 8 shows that it is the "second means" (802) that includes elements (804) and (805).

The present amendment also improves clarity of claims 40 and 49 by rearranging the order of recited elements, but has no limiting effect on the scope of these claims.

The present amendment adds no new matter and raises no new issues.

Claims 1-50 are allowable for the reasons of record as explained in the previous response, filed May 20, 2003.

Questions are welcomed by the below-signed attorney for Applicant. The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge payment of any additional fees associated with this communication or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 501281.

Respectfully submitted,
